

in the equations). Plain text and symbols (Ω) should be used instead. Only if no adequate symbols are available, an Equation Editor is to be used directly in the text.

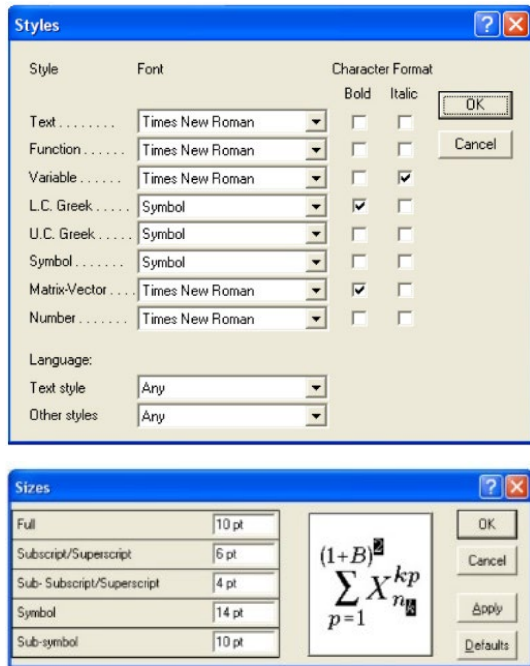

Fig. 1 Styles and sizes for equations

An example of an equation written in Equation Editor:

$$h_{ci} = \frac{q}{S(T_{wi} - T_b)} \quad (1)$$

Paragraph format for equations are (Style Equation): left indentation, 6 pt before and after, equation is at position of centered tab at 4 cm, number of equation is at position of right tab at 8.25 cm. Refer to equations in the text as Eq. (1), or Eqs. (1) and (2), and similar.

The file may be saved as .doc or .docx file. Equations must be editable, i.e. they cannot be given as figures.

All illustrations (figures, photographs, line drawings, graphs) should be numbered in series and all legends should be included at the bottom of each illustration. All figures, photographs, line drawings and graphs, prepared in electronic form, should be converted to TIFF or JPG (max quality) files, 300 dpi resolution. Figures, line drawings and graphs prepared using elements of MS Drawing or MS Graph must be converted in form of pictures and unchangeable. All illustrations should be planned in advance so as to allow reduction to 8.25 cm in column width. Please review all illustrations to ensure that they are readable. Refer to figures in the text as Fig. 1, or Figs. 1 and 2, and similar.

1.3. Tables

System	Symbol
Without delay	+
Delay $h = 1$	-
Delay $h = N = 34$	*

All tables should be numbered with consecutive Arabic numbers. They should have descriptive captions at the top of each table and should be mentioned in the text.

REFERENCES

(SAMPLES GIVEN BELOW)

Journal papers:

General form:

1. Surname1, I., Surname2, I., ..., year, Paper title, Journal Title, volume(issue), pp. page numbers, or article number, or doi (the option depends on the specific journal – check below)

Other forms of references are not acceptable.

If a journal uses page numbers as identifiers, use this form:

1. Blagojević, V., Milosavljević, Č., 2002, Application of digital sliding modes to synchronization of the work of two pneumatic cylinders, Facta Universitatis Series Mechanical Engineering, 1(9), pp. 1275-1285.

If a journal uses article number as an identifier, use this form

2. Marinkovic, D., Zehn, M., 2019, Survey of finite element method-based real-time simulations, Applied Sciences, 9(14), 2775.

If a paper has been published on the Online First (Early Access) page and has not been assigned to an issue yet, use the DOI number in this form:

3. Moory Shirbani, M., Alavi, S., 2024, Multi-objective optimization and performance analysis of bimorph magneto-electro-elastic energy harvesters, Facta Universitatis Series Mechanical Engineering, <https://doi.org/10.22190/FUME231102003S>

A book (must include the publisher and the place):

4. Stojiljković, M., 2002, Logical synthesis of pneumatic control, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering, Niš, 376 p.

A conference paper (must include the year, preferably also the date, and the place)

5. Muralidhara, H.S., 1998, Variable structure systems - A Survey, Proc. Sixth International Drying Symposium IDS 1988, Versailles, K1. 71.

PhD thesis:

6. Polat, O., 1989, Optimization of a Steam Boiler, PhD Thesis, McGill University, Canada.

A report:

7. Perkin, R.M., 1999, Feature models in Virtual Product Development, Report ECRC/M1677, Capenhurst, England.

An internet link (must include the date of the last access):

8. www.link.com (last access: dd.mm.yyyy)

The predefined indentations are 0.5 cm for the reference number and 0.75 cm for the text. Make sure this is so in your paper as well. The numbers are aligned on the right hand side (at 0.5 cm, as given above).

Make sure all references are strictly formatted as per the template, i.e. as per examples listed above. If this is not the case, processing of your paper will be delayed. Reference elements (for instance, for a journal reference: authors, publication year, Paper title, Journal Title, volume(issue), pp. page-page) are separated by comma (do not use a dot). Do not use “et al.”, “and” or “&” in the list of authors. There should be no empty space between initials (check reference no. 5 above). Do not use capital letters where not appropriate (compare with the examples). The titles of journal references use small letters, and capital letters only where demanded by grammar. On the other hand, in the book titles, all the main words start with a capital letter, but not the connecting words. The indentations and the style of numbering must be the same as in the examples provided above.
